From the Principal's Desk

"The longer I live, the more beautiful life becomes."
Frank Lloyd Wright

Regarded as the greatest American architect of all times, Frank Lloyd Wright saw the beauty all around him and came to appreciate the beauty of life more as he aged. As you grow and develop into young men and women and eventually leaders in our society, I hope you will appreciate Wright's timeless message. Appreciate the beauty of your environment--the changing patterns and rhythms in nature, the branch of a tree, the everchanging sandbars.

As you complete this phase of your education, you stand on the pinnacle of your future. Hopefully your high school days have prepared you for the next step in the process of living life. Commit yourself to excellence and prepare yourself for the unforeseen challenges ahead. Wright was a pioneer--creating architecture that celebrated the richness of the American democratic experience and human dignity. No matter what you become or what you do in life, treasure our basic democratic values and treat everyone with respect and dignity. You can make our world a better place. Take time to appreciate all life has to offer and its beauty. As you age, each day will truly become more beautiful. Wright advised his apprentices to "study nature, love nature, stay close to nature. It will never fail you."

On behalf of our faculty, administration and staff, we extend to you our best wishes and special congratulations.

Robert A. Johnson
Principal

Dedication

The Class of 2004 would like to dedicate our success to Mrs. Regina McGillivray. Mrs. McGillivray has been there for us from day one, helping us succeed during our high school careers. When we were just freshmen, she helped us grow and mature into the people we are as seniors. We could not have managed the prom, banquet, candy sales or senior outing without her. We owe all of our success as a class to her and would like to thank her for her guidance.

As we all move on from high school, we will all be going in separate directions. There will be one thing that remains consistent in all of us, our remembrance of Mrs. McGillivray. She taught us that life is what you make of it and to live every day to the fullest. With her sparkling attitude, we all learned that there is nothing wrong with just wanting to have some fun.

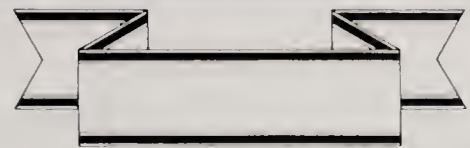

Thank you, Mrs. McGillivray, for guiding us and teaching us everything we needed to know to make the last four years a success!!

Class Motto

The longer I live, the more beautiful life becomes.

Class History

We came, we learned, we conquered. Now our future lies even closer than ever and it did not come easily. It all started back when the Millennium started. In 2000, the Class of 2004 took their spots as freshmen. The look in our eyes was bright. Mrs McGillivray & Mrs. Palenscar took us under their wings and became our advisors. As freshmen, we had Chris Davis, Paul Julian, Jesi Romanowski, Joshua Richards, Marissa Moon & Kevin Dowd supporting the start of the best class--2004! They planned class trips as well as a great candy drive.

After finishing an interesting but successful freshmen year, we all moved on to our sophomore year. Our officers were Chris Davis, Paul Julian, Kevin Dowd, Will Clair, Andy Tran & Lisa Ladany, along with Mrs. McGillivray & Mrs. Palenscar. We made good use of our time, planning our junior prom, investigating the best of the class ring companies and completing a second fantastic candy drive. We lost our pep rallies.

Junior year started off well. Our prom was held at the Yankee Pedlar on May 2, 2003. Our Prom Court consisted of: Stefanie Eremita, Derrick Gibbs, Ryan Irish, Ashley Manseau, John Gentile, Andy Tran, Michelle Slajda & Elizabeth Stremper. Our Prom Queen was Jane Jeffries and our Prom King was Tonee Shanler. Our class officers were Tonee Shanler, Kevin Dowd, Andy Tran, Lisa Ladany & Marissa Moon. The junior year was busy with the final touch-ups planned for our prom. We were also responsible for organizing Class Day for the seniors and assembling the "motto" banner used at their graduation. Another feat that the Class of 2004 accomplished in their junior year was muscling their way back to first place during Spirit Week.

And finally, the rise of 2004 has arrived. Our high school years are now over and our lives have just begun. Life moves fast. We lived it together and it proved to be a great year.

Our soccer team started it all off by playing in the State Tournament. The team went all the way to the quarter finals where they lost to the class "S" champions. As seniors, we are taking six soccer players out of EWHs and entering into the real world! These six are: Tonee Shanler, John Gentile, Andy Tran, Scott Grouten, Kevin Dowd & Ryan Wilcox.

We enjoyed a great senior banquet at Jester's Court, followed by a great Senior Outing at High Meadows. We think we can all say that the fundraisers that the Class of 2004 offered paid off in the end! Our officers this year were dedicated and very capable. They made our senior year a great memory. These officers were Melisa Daigle, Amanda Bowen, Ashley Desilet, Kevin Dowd, Andy Tran & Tonee Shanler. Our Class Advisors were Mr. Croft, Mrs. Tedisky & the wonderful, Mrs. McGillivray. We just want to thank the high school for letting us enjoy the best years of our lives and letting them know that they will never be forgotten. The future awaits us.....

High school, the most important thing in your life or so it seems. Parties, Girls. The Life (you know how it is). Friends who aren't really friends. And I think I thought I knew who they really were and then I realize every face has 2 sides. It's not about who puts on the best show or who talks the most about someone. I gotta remember. It's all about the times! When you read this now or 20 years from now, thinking how weird I am, don't hate me, just love me for the genius I am.

Kevin Kaiser

They say these are the best years of your life. All I've learned here is that you never really know someone, people never change, and no one in high school can understand life, love or friendship. It's all drama. But it's all over now, thanks for the times everyone I care about. You know who you are. I'm finally done and getting outa here fast. May the future bring happiness to those who really deserve it and nothing to those who don't. Farewell EW. Feed the canaries for life. Proximity.

It's all right. There comes a time. Got no patience to search. For peace of mind. Layin' low. Want to take it slow. No more hiding or disguising truths I've sold. Everyday it's something. Hits me all so cold. Find me sittin' by myself. No excuses, then I know. ~ Alice in Chains. No Excuses

These four years have been quite the experience. I have met new people that I would have never met had I not come here. The things I have seen and heard and all the ideas that have been drilled into my brain will not be soon forgotten. The thoughts of my friends and family throughout this time will also not be forgotten. All the homework and hectic days of projects and oral reports, I will choose to forget having not enjoyed those moments. The thing I will never forget is the laughter.

Why are you reading this? Are you doing a report on me? A little biography on my superness? Yes, indeed you are. So, in that case, this is what I have done for mankind: 1. Invented the @ symbol 2. Lead the Allies to victory in WWII 3. Defeated the Nazi's in WWII 4. Used a large laser to destroy the moon in WWII. Eh, no. I'm lying. In all seriousness, try as you might, sweeping floors for a living in KFC won't make you very happy. Live the life you want to live! Sculpt it now before it's too late.

If you can read this, that means the time has finally come for my departure. It was fun coming back to East Windsor schools and the people are great. Since I am writing this as a Junior, I really don't know, yet, what I have done as a senior but as a junior, well, I was in "Wizard of Oz" as the Scarecrow. I was Prom King of 2003 and Host for a great talent show. Nicole, did you really have fun at the prom? "I'm a risk-taker. My attitude is: go after what you want. It has been a long, bumpy ride and thank God, it's over. The one thing I learned through all of these years is it is impossible to get by when you follow the rules. The saying is true, "all work and no play makes you insane and unhappy." Another thing I learned was the opinions and thoughts of others can destroy you, if you let them. Be your own person and do what makes you happy, you will succeed. I learned a lot of stuff like math and science, but in the end, that doesn't even matter.

Farewell

Farewell to the Class of 2004

When you entered the halls of the East Windsor Junior/Senior High School in August, 1998, you entered as nervous seventh graders completely unaware of what the years ahead would bring. During your time here, you have discovered many new and wonderful things and have contributed much to the school and the community. With your classmates, you have laughed together and cried together; met many successes and experienced some failures; created new memories and recalled old ones. Fast-forward to 2004 and time sure has flown by! As your advisors, we have seen the tremendous growth and change in each one of you and we are very proud to call you "our students". So, we bring this final chapter of your years here at East Windsor High School to a close, confident that you possess all the knowledge and skills necessary to lead a successful life. As you leave the halls of East Windsor High School to explore all the world has to offer, we leave you with a final quote from Ralph Waldo Emerson: "What lies behind us and what lies ahead of us are small matters compared to what lies within us." Farewell, dear friends! Best of luck for a bright and shining future!

*Your Advisors,
Mr. Croft
Mrs. McGillivray
Mrs. Tedisky*

Best Wishes! Mr. Johnson

Brian Chicano

April 17, 1986 ~ December 9, 1997

Class of 2004

A brand new angel in the sky
who sits by us as we each cry.
He gives us each something very dear
that eases the pain of each sorrow tear.
He gives us strength to carry on
as he smiles with the sun at each new dawn.
He fills our hearts with love
as he soars over head like a mourning dove.
He lets our souls be free
like the highest leaf on the tallest tree.
He allows our spirit to run
like a galloping stallion in the evening sun.
He was all of these things as a whole
for now we sadly rest his soul.
To each of us he meant something different for when we met it was a very special moment.
Now we have to say good-bye
but are comforted by the bells that chime.
For every time a bell rings
an angel receives his wings.

December 9, 1997

Catherine A. Malin "Miss Kate"

Brian Chicano was the nicest person that I ever had the privilege of knowing. He had more health problems than any person should have to deal with, yet he never complained. Instead, he just kept smiling. Anyone that gave him the chance to get to know them would have been friends with him, too. Brian was always a fighter, and while his disease may have killed him, it never beat him. He was too strong and too good for that.

Kevin Dowd

We preserve your high school memories.

The Leo Club is an official activity of the Lions Clubs International that encourages young men and women to serve others in the community and around the world.

The East Windsor Leo Club began in September 2001 and has been active in community fundraisers, assisting children in Afganistan and supporting the Red Cross Blood Drives. The Leo's are preparing a local band concert with upcoming local rock groups that will raise money for the training and purchase of a community "service dog" that will assist handicapped persons in town.

Leo Clubs include regular meetings, projects and social functions. The Leo motto—Leadership, Experience, Opportunity—is fulfilled as members work together in response to the needs of others. There are presently 53 active Leo Club members in the East Windsor branch.

U.S. troops in Iraq

The biggest news event of 2003 was unquestionably President Bush's decision to employ American armed forces to oust Iraqi dictator Saddam Hussein. The regime was toppled quickly, forcing Hussein and top members of his Baath political party into hiding. After an exhaustive manhunt, U.S. forces captured Hussein in a small underground hiding area on the banks of the Tigris River.

an epic conclusion

In 2003, the one film at the top of everyone's must-see list was The Return of the King. In the final chapter of The Lord of the Rings trilogy, Frodo (Elijah Wood) journeys to Mount Doom to dispose of a very dangerous piece of jewelry. Meanwhile, Aragorn (Viggo Mortensen) and Gandalf (Ian McKellen) lead humanity in one last stand against Sauron's massive army of Orcs and airplane-sized elephants. Will the One Ring be destroyed? Will humanity survive? Will director Peter Jackson finally get a Best Picture Oscar® for his amazing work? All of Middle Earth wants to know....
